2 Applying for a Loan

- 2.1 An application for a home loan top up (mortgage) may be made by completing the relevant loan application form as provided by the Credit Union for this purpose. Unless we already hold it, you must supply us with all necessary information and documentation to satisfy our obligations to identify you under legislation to combat money laundering and terrorist financing.

- 2.2 In agreeing to advance the home loan top up, you agree to borrow funds subject to the terms and conditions set out in the letter of offer.
- 2.3 We reserve the right to withdraw or vary approval at any time before the completion of the mortgage transaction. You may also withdraw before the completion of the mortgage transaction.

3 Term of the Loan

- 3.1 The minimum term of the loan is 5 years with a maximum term of 35 years, however the home loan top up term cannot exceed the term outstanding on the main MFCU mortgage account.

4 Drawdown/Security:

- 4.1 You must within 90 days of receiving a letter of offer, confirm in writing your willingness to accept the offer.
- 4.2 You must draw down the loan in one full amount no later than 90 days after the loan is approved. In the event that the loan does not draw down within this period, the loan offer will lapse and you will be obliged to reapply with a new application and supporting documentation.

An Early Redemption Charge is due if you repay all or part of your mortgage before the end of the set fixed period, however you can make an overpayment of 10% of your outstanding fixed rate balance each year without incurring an Early breakage charge.
- 5.5 You can terminate the loan agreement at any time by repaying everything you owe in connection with the loan including accrued interest and the early breakage charge where applicable. See Section 10 for more details.
- 5.6 If the borrower wishes to make a full repayment, the Credit Union will confirm the sum payable and the Borrower is obliged to pay it in full prior to the release of the Credit Union's security.

6 Interest

- 6.1 Details of the rate will be advised to you on home loan application.
- 6.2 Interest will be calculated and accrued based on the daily balance of the loan amount outstanding.
- 6.3 We charge interest to your account on a daily basis.
- 6.4 A fixed rate loan is calculated on the basis that the loan will not be repaid ahead of maturity of the fixed interest rate term. It is on this basis that the Credit Union is prepared to commit itself to holding its lending rate fixed for the agreed period and incur certain third party costs on your behalf. While on a fixed interest rate, the interest rate and mortgage repayment remain the same for the agreed fixed interest rate period. During this time, the interest rate will not change.
- 6.5 At the end of an unbroken fixed interest rate period, the interest rate on your loan will default to the standard variable interest rate then offered by the Credit Union at that time unless you choose an alternative interest rate, if on offer by the Credit Union to you at that time. Our standard variable interest rate is a variable interest rate. If the interest rate on your loan defaults or otherwise converts to a variable interest rate then offered by the credit union, your interest rate and the amount of your instalments could increase or decrease during the remaining term of your loan and your interest rate could be higher than the fixed interest rate that applied during any fixed interest rate period.

7 Statements

- 7.1 A statement of your home loan top up account will be issued to you on an annual basis.

8 Arrears

- 8.1 In the event that your mortgage account goes into arrears with a repayment not being made on the due dates or any of them, or of any breach of the conditions of the loan, the Credit Union may demand an early repayment of the principal and accrued interest.
- 8.2 If on realisation of its security the net proceeds are insufficient to discharge your total debit outstanding, you will immediately pay the amount of the deficiency with interest until fully discharged.
- 8.3 The loan and any interest relating to the loan is immediately repayable in the event of your bankruptcy, death or contractual incapacity.

9 Joint & Several Liability

- 9.1 If your mortgage is in joint names, the obligations of the joint mortgage account holders to us under these terms and conditions and credit agreement, in respect of all operations of the account are joint and several and the act or default of any of them shall be deemed to the act or default of all of them.
- 9.2 Correspondence and notices in relation to a joint account will be sent by us to the first named person on the account. Such correspondence and notices will be deemed by us to have been received by all parties to the mortgage.

- 10.3 The Borrower is entitled to prepay the loan in full at any time or to convert to a variable rate or other fixed rate that the Credit Union may offer during the term of the loan or to make a capital repayment in excess of the scheduled instalments. In any of these circumstances an early breakage charge is payable by the Borrower where the fixed interest rate period has not expired. The breakage charge is calculated as follows: amount (A) x remaining term in days divided by 365 (U) x difference in cost of funds (D%). Definition of terms used in this formula: (A) amount - The amount being repaid early, or the amount being converted to a variable rate or another fixed rate period.
